

Introduction to Renewable Energy

1-day Course

The Government

SUSTAINABLE

is committed to increasing the amount of energy generated from low and zero carbon technologies; 20% by 2020. The onus is on all new development to contribute to this target.

Programme Aims

This seminar is designed to introduce and explain the main renewable energy technologies and is aimed at advisors, such as local authority staff, energy managers and architects who want an introduction to the main renewable energy technologies.

Programme

- Introduction to the main renewable energy technologies including:
 - Solar Water Heating
 - Wood Fuel Heating
 - Ground Source Heat Pumps
 - Solar Photovoltaics and
 - Small to Medium Scale Wind
- An overview of policy and legislative development and requirements
- Interactive session on selecting technologies
- Look at the planning issues surrounding technologies

DATES

25 May 2010

HQ Northampton

23 September 2010

HQ Northampton

PRICE

£175 + VAT

£50 Member Discount

10% Training Affiliate Discount